

PRESS RELEASE

Students Name Five Santa Fe Community College Faculty & Staff Outstanding

January 23, 2006

Five Santa Fe Community College faculty and staff members have been named outstanding educators by their students.

Math Assistant Professor Katey Arnold, Social and Behavioral Sciences Professor Richard Buckner, Staff Assistant Christine Flavin, Veterans Affairs Coordinator John Gebhardt and Math Professor Bruce Teague were named by former SFCC students now enrolled in the College of Agricultural and Life Sciences at the University of Florida.

The students were asked to recommend outstanding educators whose support and guidance helped them accomplish their academic goals. The five Santa Fe faculty and staff members received certificates from the College of Agricultural and Life Sciences in recognition of their dedication and skill in working with students.
