

PRESS RELEASE

PJC Career Day

January 25, 2006

Pensacola--About 500 high school seniors from Escambia and Santa Rosa counties are attending PJC Career Day for High School Seniors 8:30 a.m. to noon Friday, Feb. 17, at the Student Center, Building 5, on the Pensacola campus.

The event is geared for students who are currently enrolled in career and technical education programs.

The day provides a one-stop tour of PJC's career programs designed to prepare students for high-tech, high-demand jobs in the 21st century.

PJC is providing tour guides for each school group (all students are arriving via school buses). Tours include the new WSRE facility and the Anna Lamar Switzer Center for Visual Arts.

Contact is Barbara Wall, tech prep coordinator. You can reach her at 484-1492.
